

1 AD – THE SPIRIT OF PROPHECY

The Book of Isaiah reveals how God looks at the world. It is a testimony of the History of the Modern World from God's Perspective. At this time in history God's attention is singly devoted to the person of Jesus of Nazareth. Hence the record of Isaiah for these years will be the story of the life of Christ (mostly).

The years in the life of Jesus of Nazareth are described in poetic form in the Songs of Solomon. We will therefore include the relevant verses from the Songs which match the year in the life of Christ.

Heshbon is a city located on one of the highest mountains of Moab. It is famous for its careful saving of water in reservoirs. In Heshbon there were also pools of water cut out of rock in which fish were stocked. Although Heshbon was a land-locked place – they ate fish that swam in fresh water.

Year

1

Anno Domini:

The Spirit gives Jesus of Nazareth a prophetic vision (eyes) in which Gentiles (fishes) swim in pools dug into the rock (his death). As King of Judah he was to go to Jerusalem.
