

13 AD – JESUS IS PROMISED BELIEVERS FROM ALL NATIONS LIKE THE SAND OF THE SEA

Jesus was placed under the Law of Moses to fulfil it on behalf of his believers. But while Jesus is in Syria (see 12 AD) the Spirit reveals to the Holy Son a great mystery – the body of Christ will not be from the Holy Land! How appropriate – none of the wives of the patriarchs were either!

From his vantage in Syria the Spirit informs Jesus to look in every direction of the compass – from these places his spiritual offspring will come. Furthermore, the Spirit shows Jesus - perhaps through reading the very verses we are considering – that the children of God through faith in Jesus will not be required to follow any rituals in the Law of Moses . There will be no ‘new moons and sabbaths’ or even ‘solemn assemblies’. Believers in Jesus will be free from the requirements of the Law of Moses – because Jesus will fulfill those requirements for them.

Now for the shocker: ‘His left hand will be under my head’. The children of Judah who REBEL– will become the least favored in the family – in eternity they will be placed under the authority of believers saved by faith in the blood of Jesus. ‘His right hand will embrace me’. Jesus – from his seat at the right hand of the Father - will love his family of believers who are not from the Holy Land most of all. Jesus believed the great mystery – and went to the Cross with the hope ‘set before him’ of an enormous following of redeemed souls from all lands on earth.

Year

13

Anno Domini:

While in Syria God shows Jesus his inheritance - which will be such a huge number of believers no man could count them. They will come from every corner of the earth. And they will not follow Jewish customs but be justified by believing in Jesus.

Verse

13

Isa. 1 v 13

Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

Chapter
