

4 AD – THE WORD OF THE FATHER TO HIS TWO SONS

Jesus knew the children of Judah would reject him. Jesus knew the children of Judah would kill him. In spite of certain death and humiliation at the hands of his brothers Jesus did not flinch. Jesus was ready to offer his life – the fat of the firstborn of the flock – on the altar. Jesus did not count his life his own. Jesus gave up his life as a fragrant offering acceptable to God.

The children of Judah would try to keep their lives and their way of life. But God would punish them – the blood of Jesus would cry to God from the ground where he was crucified at Golgotha – and God would send the Romans to destroy that city – Jerusalem.

And Jesus – the Branch - would rise from the dead – climb the Palm - and ascend to the right hand of the Father – eat it's fruit. He who gave up his life kept it. And the children of Judah – who tried to keep their lives - would be exiled away from the Holy Land and wander alone.
