

1754 AD – ‘WASHINGTON STARTS A WAR BY AMBUSH & ASSASSINATION’

“Thus says the LORD: Go get a flask, an earthenware vessel of a craftsman, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests.” (Jer. 19 v 1)

EVENTS IN 1754 AD

George Washington led a troop of Virginia militia into colonial territory claimed by France (definitely outside British America) and ambushed a party of French-Canadian soldiers which provoked a war between England and France.

THE WASHINGTON FAMILY

In 1632 the Archbishop of Canterbury made Lawrence Washington Proctor at the University of Oxford and appointed him to the well-compensated rectory of Purleigh, Essex.

During the Civil War Lawrence Washington was stripped of his post and reassigned to an impoverished parish. His wife Amphilis and their children did not accompany him. They were given shelter by the family of Sir Edwin Sandys, a relation who was a founder of the Virginia Company (see our paper on the Virginia Charter: 1606 AD).

Edwin Sandys was knighted by King James I on his ascension to the throne in 1603 (Francis Bacon also knighted the same year by the same sovereign - see our paper 1561 AD).

In 1633 John Washington was born in Purleigh, Essex. (Died 1677)

In 1656 John Washington invested in a merchant ship transporting tobacco from America to Europe. He left England and landed in America the following year. He stayed with another settler family and married his daughter. As a wedding gift the couple were granted 700 acres. He became a successful planter and was elected to the Virginia House.

In 1676 John Washington was appointed a Colonel in the Virginia militia. He led a company to back a group of Marylanders having a parley with native chiefs. Washington’s company killed six chiefs of various tribes resulting in a breakdown in relations between natives and colonists.

In 1659 Lawrence Washington II was born. (Died 1698)

He was sent back to England to be educated as a lawyer. As eldest son he inherited two substantial estates from his father: Mattox Creek (1,850 acres) and Little Hunting Creek (2,500 acres)<sup>1</sup>. He was elected to the Virginia House and active in politics.

In 1694 Augustine Washington was born. (Died 1743) He became a planter, active in the Anglican Church, elected to the Virginia House, and served as county sheriff.

In 1731 George Washington was born. On his father's death he inherited a minor property and its slaves. In 1761 he later inherited one of the two larger tracts of family land.

In 1749 George Washington was appointed official surveyor for Culpeper County, a well-paid position that allowed him to acquire land in the Shenandoah Valley.

In 1752 George Washington joined the Fredericksburg Lodge as a Free-Mason (age 20).

In 1753 George Washington was raised to Master Mason at Fredericksburg Lodge.<sup>2</sup>

TREATY OF UTRECHT

In 1713 the Treaty of Utrecht concluded a comprehensive peace between all the major European powers which also resulted in a division of North America colonies.

The French ceded Rupert's Land (Hudson's Bay), Newfoundland and Nova Scotia to England.

The French retained Ile-St-Jean (Prince Edward Island) and Ile Royale (Cape Breton Island) on which France erected the Fortress of Louisburg.

In return the French retained Canada (the modern provinces of Quebec, Ontario, and Manitoba), and the territory of Louisiana.

The Treaty did not fix a boundary between the English colonies on the east coast and the Louisiana hinterlands under French colonial government. This was a grievous oversight.

By the 1720's the French had installed a government in New Orleans for the territory. In 1722 France unilaterally claimed all land south of the Great Lakes and north of the mouth of the Ohio River.

MAP OF NORTH AMERICA IN 1750

THE OHIO COMPANY

In 1748 the Thomas Lee and Lawrence and Augustine Washington organized the Ohio Company to represent the prospecting and trading interests of Virginia investors: including some leading families: John Hanbury, Colonel Cresap, George Mercer, and John Mercer.

In 1748 George Mercer petitioned King George for land in the Ohio country.

In 1749 the British Crown granted the Ohio Company 500,000 acres in the Ohio Valley between the Kanawha River and Monongahela. The first 200,000 acres was promised, the following 300,000 acres were to be granted if the Ohio Company successfully settled one hundred families in seven years. The Ohio Company was required to construct a fort.

In 1750 the Ohio Company gave a contract to Cresap to blaze a small road over the mountains. Christopher Gist was hired to explore Ohio and identify lands for settlement.

In 1753 the organizers signed a treaty of friendship with the main tribes of the region.

In 1753 the Governor appointed George Washington to the rank of Major in the militia.

BOUNDARY CONFLICTS

In 1753 Virginia Governor Dinwiddie learned the French had constructed two forts just south of Lake Erie. He saw the forts as threatening Virginia's interests. In fact he considered Virginia to be 'exposed to the enemy'.

Dinwiddie sent an eight man expedition under George Washington to warn the French to withdraw. The French commander politely received him and sent him back with a letter saying his request would be forwarded on to the military leadership in Quebec.

Dinwiddie sent a force of Virginia militia to build a fort at the forks of the Ohio River. The French quickly drove off the Virginians and built a large fort there, Fort Duquesne.

BATTLE OF JUMONVILLE GLEN

Governor Dinwiddie ordered Washington back to the frontier with the following orders:

'act on the [defensive], but in Case any Attempts are made to obstruct the Works or interrupt our [settlements] by any Persons whatsoever, You are to restrain all such Offenders, & in Case of resistance to make Prisoners of or kill & destroy them'.

On May 28, 1754 newly promoted Lieutenant Colonel George Washington crept up unawares, and ambushed a camp of 35 French-Canadians. The French commander, Jumonville, died.

After the action, George Washington retreated and built a small stockade, Fort Necessary. Forces from Fort Duquesne compelled him to surrender. Under the terms of the surrender Washington signed a statement (in French) saying Jumonville was slain on his orders.

A sworn eyewitness statement of Private John Shaw, a Virginia militiaman, said a native leader under Washington's command tomahawked Jumonville in the head after the French had formally surrendered, washed his hands with his brains, and scalped him.

THE FRENCH AND INDIAN WAR (1754-62)

The French and British bolstered forces in the colonies. There was a string of French victories on land. In 1755 the British fired on a French ship.

THE SEVEN YEARS WARS (1756-62)

In 1756 France and Britain declared war on each other. The global conflict lasted 7 years.

PROPHECY OF JEREMIAH

“Thus says the LORD, Go get a flask, an earthenware vessel of a craftsman, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests.” (Jeremiah 19 v 1)

The Hebrew word for ‘flask’ means a vessel for drinking. The word even sounds like drinking: ‘glug-glug’. The vessel called for is earthenware, clay that has been hardened through fire.

“Thus says the LORD, Go get a flask, an earthenware vessel”

George Washington was God’s chosen vessel. The people of America would drink his words, like a tipster draining fermented drink from a flask, and become drunk on them.

George Washington was such a hardened vessel. He was toughened by frontier life. He was a slave master. He was six feet tall and towered over other men. His physique was sturdy like a battleship. He loved the blood sports: fox chase and cock-fighting. He was a businessman and wheeler-dealer. He was a land investor with an eye to personal gain. He was a military officer, ready to send his own men to their death and ready to send enemies to their death. He was an aristocrat, an arrogant person of rank in Virginia. His advice concerning common people was: ‘treat them civilly’ but ‘keep them at a proper distance for they will grow upon familiarity in proportion to your loss of authority’.

“of a craftsman”

The word in this passage is translated ‘potter’ in the King James Bible. But the Hebrew word has no connection with pottery per se; it has a broader meaning: ‘a creator, one who forms’. What does a craftsman do? He sees earth and forms a drinking flask. He sees metal and forms a gun. He sees a tree branch and forms a flute. He sees bare land and he forms a city.

George Washington was a craftsman, even a Master Mason. And he 'formed' America!

The Free-Masons are a society of craftsmen, so they even call themselves: builders of cities, formers of nations, architects of man's wisdom and knowledge, humanists who believe man can possess great power to mold creation into a servant of his desires and ambitions.

Secure behind the doors of oaths and imprecations, they devise their schemes among their ancient families to enrich themselves through access to power and insider knowledge. Their wish is to craft the world in their own image according to their own design. Every capital of Europe and America has the stamp of their designs and symbols upon the buildings and the city plans. Since ancient days they have succeeded in crafting world affairs behind the scenes.

"and take of the ancients of the people"

In 1753 George Washington was a citizen and landowner in British America. His family was an ancient family in the British Isles going back sixteen generations.

His roots go back to the 12th century<sup>3</sup>. His forefather William de Hertburne assumed a tenancy of Wessyngtonlands from the Bishop of Durham. He changed his name to William de Wessyngton (which later generations changed to Washington). The ancestral home is located near Sunderland, a port city on the east coast in the far north of England, close to Scotland.

"and of the ancients of the priests"

George Washington was descended from Lawrence Washington, a rector of the Church of England and for a time Proctor, or religious warden, of Oxford University.

Interestingly, Lawrence Washington was not an Anglican priest. A priest conducts the day-to-day operation of a church or a cathedral. The 'rector' is the administrator or ruler of the local establishment. At one time the Pope was called the 'the rector of the world' (now discontinued) and was conferred a papal tiara as part of his formal installation after election.

Is that where it ends? Is prophecy broken? Was George Washington God's chosen vessel, but inconveniently he wasn't descended from a priesthood as the prophecy indicates? Not so!

William de Herteburne was so named because his home was the village of Hartburn located immediately north of Sunderland and the Wessyngtonlands estate. The word 'Hartburn' comes from 'Hart' (Male Deer) and 'Burn' (River).

The village church in Hartburn is the Parish of St. Andrew, built after the Norman Conquest in 1066. Marks which were carved into the doorpost by the Knights Templar, who used the building for their meetings and secret ceremonies in the 1200's, are still visible.

William de Herteburne was a man of wealth, of sufficient means to rent from the Bishop of Durham an estate with a massive stone built hall and residence still standing today<sup>4</sup>. William de Herteburne clearly was not landed gentry of England since he had no estate of his own and was forced to rent. The spelling of his last name uses the Norman French spelling.

Who had money in ancient England who was not landed gentry and hailed from a village? The Knights Templar were wealthy. The Knights Templar were resident in Hartburn.

We conclude that William de Herteburne was a member of the Knights Templar secret society. Was he merely a low member? No. He must have been a member of high standing in order for the Bishop of Durham to rent him a magnificent manor.

Is the Knights Templar a priesthood? Yes! That is how they describe themselves<sup>5</sup>. They say:

- "The Order of the Temple of Solomon is known as a monastic Order of 'warrior-monks'"
- "What has been little known, however, buried as scattered pieces in the historical record, is that the Templar Order has always held its own autonomous ecclesiastical authority since its inception, carrying MULTIPLE LINES OF ANCIENT SACRED PRIESTHOODS with full legitimacy under Canon law. ... those priesthoods were consolidated ...by the Knights Templar as its most fundamental and essential heritage"

If you read a biography of George Washington his association with Free-Masonry is downplayed, not at the center of his life and practice but at the periphery. The prophecy is clear: George Washington was descended from a line of ancient priests. All the circumstantial evidence: his membership in Masonry, his ancestors' association with the founders of the Virginia Company, and his fore-father's role in Knights Templar support it.

SPIRITUAL NUMBER ANALYSIS

For a mind that has wisdom please read on. See truth from another perspective.

PART ONE

Chapter 19 of Jeremiah is the 88th chapter of the prophetic Life of Christ starting with Songs 6.

The spiritual number 19 means 'Faith'

The spiritual number 88 means 'Righteous Afflicted'

The thirty-five French-Canadian soldiers and the assassinated officer Jumonville were guilty of nothing except camping in the bushes in a territory claimed by the King of France in 1722. No nation had publically contested that claim. They were 'Righteous' – within their rights. In return for their 'Faith' in law and international order they were ambushed and murdered.

PART TWO

Jeremiah 18 v 24 is the 19,409th verse in the whole Bible starting at Gen 1 v 1.

The number 19,409 = 13 x 1493 [238th prime]

The spiritual meaning of 13 is 'Rebellion'

The spiritual meaning of 238 is 'LORD's Sacrifice Scorned'

The spiritual meaning of 1493 is 'Truth has Perished: Vanished from Lips'

When you look at all the speeches, the letters, the conversations of George Washington you will not find any place where he magnified the name of the LORD Jesus Christ. Although he was known to attend Anglican services and take communion he never publicly confessed Jesus Christ. In fact, his spiritual belief was so well masked scholars still debate if he was a Deist or a Christian. He sometimes talked about 'Providence' and 'God' but never went beyond that.

What you will find in the words of George Washington is every other worldly matter: politics, business, military, family, and so on. His biographer wrote that while home at Mount Vernon George Washington spent Sundays writing letters, fox-hunting, or other activities.

American patriots may want to make George Washington to be a saint. The truth was he led a party of Virginia militia in peace-time and ambushed 35 unsuspecting foreign soldiers seated innocently around their campfire billeting inoffensively outside the boundaries of British America. George Washington callously took numerous lives and causing others to be wounded. He also permitted one of his men, a native man, to assassinate the French commander while he was a prisoner of war under his care. His great grand-father John Washington was cut from the same cloth – he murdered six Indian chiefs who had come in peace to a parley. (See history of John Washington on page one above)

George Washington was no saint. His actions and his words permitted the LORD Jesus Christ no glory. But his own glory and his popularity and his legend he cultivated until he was idolized by an entire nation.

PART THREE

Jeremiah 18 v 24 is the 1754th verse of The Prophets starting at Isaiah 1 v 1.

The number 1754 = 2 x 877 [151st prime]

The spiritual meaning of 2 is 'Division' or 'Opposite'

The spiritual meaning of 151 is 'Man's Possessions'

The spiritual meaning of 877 is 'Man's Possessions Devoured'

The spiritual numbers are a little hard to translate.

What they are saying is: 'Opposite' (2) of 'Man's Possessions Devoured' (877)

In other words: 'Man's Possessions Multiplied' (1754)

George Washington was the first American tycoon. He would let nothing stand in the way of his ambition to be wealthy. A posse of French-Canadian soldiers stands in the way of a 200,000 acre land grant? Murder them in cold blood. The army of King George stands in the way of George Washington and his Virginia Company Masonic cronies 'crafting' America according to its own designs and purposes? Make an alliance with France and defeat Britain. Britain! The mother nation who had nursed the Virginia Colony into existence, granting her the Charter to exist! Everything sacred is sacrificed to get rich! The heart of America!
