BIBLE BOOK: EPHESIANSKEY VERSES: ch 4 v 4-6

one God and Father of all, and in you all."

SIGN DESCRIPTION:

GOOD SHEPHERD - or - PEN OF THE SHEEP

SIGN INTERPRETATION: (per Genesis 49)

BOOTES portrays a SHEEP PEN, where Arcturus is the Gate of the PEN. Shepherds pen their sheep at night so they are safe from predators who hunt at night. The Shepherd will sleep across the entrance: the wolves will get at the sheep only 'over my dead body'. In Genesis 49 the Good Shepherd is Israel (aged Jacob) who is lying on his death bed. He is saying his last words to his children.

BOOTES is not erect, but tilting towards CORONA: CUP OF BLESSING. Just as Israel (Jacob) gave a blessing to his sons on his death bed, Jesus offered the apostles the Cup of Blessing (Communion) the night before he died.

In the right hand BOOTES is offering the CUP OF BLESSING. In his left hand BOOTES is holding his Shepherd's Staff of Authority over the sheep. Very Important! Jesus offered the apostles a CUP OF COMMUNION in His Blood. Jesus retains authority over the sheep (the Staff). Jesus was going to die. But Jesus would shortly rise again and ascend to the right hand of the Father in Heaven. All the sheep, believers, who accept the blood of Christ on the Cross paid for their sins, BELONG TO JESUS. The living resurrected Christ continues to be our Good Shepherd and retains his right and authority over all the sheep He bought with His blood on the Cross.

If it were switched, and Jesus offered the apostles his Staff of Authority over the sheep, then it would make sense for the apostles to have authority over sheep kept in their pens (religious divisions). But JESUS NEVER DELEGATED his authority. Jesus only offered the apostles a CUP OF BLESSING that they were to all share: a part in the inheritance of all the saints in Christ: chiefly forgiveness of sins and eternal life.

In offering the apostles the CUP OF BLESSING, and washing their feet, Jesus demonstrated the FATHER'S LOVE for all the believers. However, it was the TIME OF THE END for Israel (aged Jacob) and for Jesus.

LINK OF INDIVIDUAL STARS TO BIBLE CHAPTERS:Arcturus: I Lay Down My Life For The SheepBible Chapter: Exodus 22Subject: Laws to Protect Property from ThievesInsight: At the Last Supper Jesus said: 'one will betray me', all will 'be scattered', and Peter will 'deny Me'.

Likewise aged Jacob did not offer many happy words. As believers we tend to glorify the apostles as most saintly of all saints. But Arcturus aligns with Exodus 22, which deals with punishments for thieves. History records that many of the apostles founded closed religious communions. Example: Peter founded Catholicism; Thomas founded a Church in India. In building their own sheep pens those apostles divided the flock of Christ and took some of His sheep as their own: THIEVES!
